

Success Principles for Entrepreneurs

Part I The Mindset of Success)

Success starts with your mind. You are six inches from Success

You need to believe you can succeed and that you are worthy of it

Identify and Transform your Self Talk.

Develop a mindset of abundance, acceptance and gratitude

Our behavior is consistent with our beliefs. If you believe you will fail, you will

Quitting is not an option

Obstacles are an opportunity to grow and look at things from a different perspective.

Think of failure as feedback as to what works; you just haven't found the right path (yet)

You need to know what Success means to you and define it.

Daily look at it, visualize it and taste it.

Your brain is a muscle that needs exercising.

Develop a Growth Mindset

You need to continually train your brain.

Start the day off right with positive declaration and journaling
